MILLION DOLLAR QUARTET

On December 4, 1956, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins and Elvis Presley came together to make music. They ended up making history . . . MILLION DOLLAR QUARTET is the electrifying new musical (1-1/2 hours long and no intermission) inspired by the famed recording session that brought together these rock n' roll icons for the first and only time. It features a score of rock hits that includes "Blue Suede Shoes", "Great Balls of Fire", "Walk the Line", "Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On", "Folsom Prison Blues", "Hound Dog", and more!

We chose a 7:00pm show because we thought you might want to have your children or grandchildren hear some of the best music of the "Baby Boomer Era."

Tuesday Evening, May 18th at 7:00pm
Nederlander Theater
208 West 41st Street (bet. 7th & 8th Ave.)
New York City
Price: $150.00 per ticket
